

DOT i3screen Medical Review

The i3screen Medical Review team processes non-negative results at an average rate of under 72 hours. In certain circumstances, DOT regulations may require a result to be held by the Medical Review Officer for up to 10 days.

DER makes 3 attempts to contact participant. (24 hours)

DER directly notifies participant to call MRO?

MR staff notifies DER/company by phone or

fax of pending result.

MRO must hold result for a period of 10 days from the day the certified result was received from

DER must then notify MRO that participant has been instructed to call in. MRO then must hold result for 72 hours..

The Medical Review process begins within 12 business hours of receiving the Non-negative result from the laboratory. The Medical Review staff must obtain both CCF 1 signed by scientist and CCF2 signed by participant. MR staff makes 3 attempts to contact participant. (24 hours) Participant Yesinterviewed? Yes Possible legitimate medical explanation? Yes No Participant interviewed? MRO obtains verification of medical explanation. (0-72 hours) No

MR staff reports result to company